

It Really is a Partnership with Father

Life as a son is about being in partnership with Father, both in our lives and in the Kingdom. From another perspective, it's also a partnership with our King as we co-work with him in the things of his Kingdom on Earth.

In this article, I want to focus more on the partnership we have with the Trinity in the way we live life. That's because I grew up in the sin-focused church system and spent around 50 years there learning a different paradigm to the realities that are connected with sonship. Whether taught to me from the pulpit or not, my life was about doing whatever I wanted, so long as I didn't sin. I also had to go to a church meeting on Sundays to ensure that I pleased 'God'<sup>1</sup>. That's not a Kingdom way to live.

What I've learnt from what Father has taught me and from my intimate relationship with him over the past 5 years is a different paradigm, one of working together. He has things he wants to do in my life, and I let him. I also let the Spirit speak to me and guide me. In addition, I have things that I need to do because I'm responsible for myself. That responsibility is not about sin, because sin has been dealt with on the cross. It's about choosing righteousness and tapping into Heaven's wisdom, knowledge, understanding and discernment as I make choices through the autonomy I have as a son.<sup>2</sup>

That way of living is the way Father wants his sons to live, but that's only the foundational level of our sonship. There's much, much more he has for us to do and achieve, which he can't release us into because we're living in immaturity. We need to grow up<sup>3</sup> and mature in our sonship and spirituality so we can be used more greatly in the Kingdom. While ever we choose to be immature in our sonship and live religiously, or any way other than Father's way, we can't move forward to operate like Jesus of Nazareth, our prototype and model<sup>4</sup>.

My concern in writing this article (as I have been concerned about for years now) is to see my brothers and sisters get a proper understanding of the life they're meant to live, so they can mature in their sonship. They need to understand that their life is to be lived as Father intended it, because of who they really are. They're not 'dirty rotten sinners', They're sons of the most high God and brothers to the King of Kings. They have royalty, a level of deity<sup>5</sup>, and they were created to be planet-managers. That's a bigger picture than is understood in Christendom. As Father said to us recently:

"I created humanity with authority over the natural realm, to be in charge of the planet, and that has been restored through the work of my Son. But the greatness of that, and even the access to it, has been blinded from the minds and the hearts of my people. I cannot achieve what I need to achieve, while they play their childish 'games'."<sup>6</sup>

To understand our need to partner with Father and be responsible for ourselves was highlighted again in a recent message to us from him:

"The old season is beginning to wind down, and this process has to be complete before you gear up for the next move of My Spirit," says the Lord. "This is a time to clean up and clear up lingering issues of the past in order to be ready for what is next. Search your heart to know what needs to be done."<sup>7</sup>

1 – 'God': I use this term in inverted commas because 'God' is the generic term people use, while I don't any more. I have an intimate relationship with the members of the Trinity, so I refer to them by name, out of relationship. From my oneness with them, I also refer to them as The Trinity.

And this from him:

“There are challenges that you must work your way through, but it is My desire that you confront those issues without getting into conflict. Refuse to play the blame game, but rather seek to find what it is in yourself that needs to be brought into divine order. Only through maintaining peace will you gain the understanding necessary to overcome,” says the Lord.”<sup>8</sup>

Do you get the idea?

Father doesn't do everything for us – that's an immature mindset. That mindset is what a focus on praying does, when it should be one of Kingdom activity and good works. Communication with Father is a 24/7 spiritual activity, with some interludes of verbal communication. The remainder of life is trusting him, and resting in that trust, that he'll provide everything we need. That's where his peace and rest are found.

He reiterated that just recently:

“Lean in to my promise of provision. I have promised that I would provide for your every need. My promise remains true. You will see my hands opened to you, full of everything you need.”<sup>9</sup>

On the flip-side, we also don't do everything, as the world teaches us. We work together, but we need to get his mind on what we need to do and what we leave to him. That's how fathers and sons work together.<sup>10</sup>

~~To think about~~ Are you remaining physically fit so you can completely enter your destiny here on Earth?
