

It's Not too Late to Start Walking in Unity With the Spirit

Our King is always drawing us into what he wants for us, it's just up to us to surrender and be drawn in to whatever it is. That's how he works – gently. Even when we make bad decisions or go against his desires, he continues to work with us lovingly, always from the standpoint of restoration and reconciliation.

However, it's always best to walk with the Spirit so we make fewer mistakes, but that can be hard for us as our mind and soul likes to dominate our spirit. If we're struggling to walk with the Spirit, there's no need to quit in abject failure – that's exactly what the enemy wants. All we need to do is make a more determined efforts to walk in unity with the Spirit and in alignment with our King. At the same time, discard all regret, fear and disappointment, and he'll be there, encouraging you to continue, without any 'I told you so'.

Here's his mind on the matter:

“You can now look back to see how your decisions have affected your current position. You have had multiple opportunities to respond to life's circumstances through walking in the Spirit instead of reacting emotionally and mentally. The goal is for you to walk in unity with Me, and the result will be spiritual maturity.”¹

Remember also, that every day we are tested to see how we respond to situations. The aim is to respond through our spiritual eyes and spiritual understanding, as well as with heavenly wisdom, knowledge, understanding and discernment. Our tendency is to react out of our heart, mind and soul, which is why every event and situation we face each day should be used to evaluate² ourselves to see how we're maturing. We can't be effective for the Kingdom if we remain babes or immature, so it's up to us to learn from our mistakes and pursue maturity in our sonship – especially as we grow in our kingship.

Here's his mind on that:

“Your recent situations have been a testing ground. This is a prime time for you to learn from your mistakes as well as from the things you have done right. Pay attention to the hardships and the victories. Both are equally important to your spiritual positioning. My desire is for you to see and understand the difference between walking in the Spirit and living in the flesh³.”⁴

IMPORTANT: Never give up. That's the enemy's plan for us, not our King's.
