

Kingdom Race Mindset Not Critical Race Theory

Why didn't Father plan his creation to have only one species of tree, one species of grass, one species of animals, etcetera? Why are there thousands and thousands of different species of living things in existence today? Why is everybody different? Why aren't we all identical, like we've been cloned?

These are questions that have engaged philosophers for thousands of years. There's no set answer to them, and there's no straight teaching on them in the Bible, either. We can speculate, but we'd only be a guessing.

To get some understanding, we can use present-day reality as our starting point and work backwards from there to Father's mind. When we do that, we must conclude that he's happy with variety in all its forms. He made all the planets different, all the stars different – everything is different. (Even identical twins are different.)<sup>1</sup>

This leads us to the understanding that at Babel, when he dispersed the people, setting them apart by giving them different languages, there was a good reason for doing it. We know it was to separate them so they'd spread out over the surface of the Earth, but as a result of that, they formed people groups (ethnic groups) and nations. Seventy nations were recognised from that expansion, according to the OT.<sup>2</sup>

When we study nations in the OT, there is no statement from Father that he wasn't happy with the existence of nations. In fact, he worked with those 70 nations and put 'the Sons of God' in charge over them. However, the nations later started worshipping their divine overseers and so rebelled against their Creator's instructions to worship him only.<sup>3</sup> This led to the disinheritance of the nations from his plans and the selection of Abram to begin a new nation who would be wholly his to work with.<sup>4</sup>

We do know that the OC Jews hated all the other nations and called them names like "uncircumcised dogs". We also know that the nations have hated the Jews for centuries. None of these reactions to other nations was sanctioned by Heaven. In fact, the Trinity wouldn't have approved of either of those negative responses.

Now that we're in the NC, we need to understand what our attitudes should be towards other nations and ethnic groups, and how we're to work with them. As Kingdom sons, we need to handle this appropriately in ways that are different to society and in line with Father's heart.

Paul lays it out pretty clearly in one of his letters to the 1st Century believers. He basically stated: When we come together, there are to be no divisions of any sort. Nothing should divide us – not our gender, our race, our social status, our age, or anything else. Nothing should separate us, because we come as sons, all equal in Father's eyes. We may look different, speak differently, and have different customs, but we're sons, first and foremost.

If we realize that our spirit is our real self, and that our spirit doesn't have any gender or ethnic attributes, then that's a pretty clear guideline that in a spiritual kingdom we're all the same. We may function differently, have different Kingdom assignments, and be at different levels of spiritual maturity, but we're all the same as spirit beings.

In the Kingdom we have to think spiritually, as well as naturally. We cannot focus primarily on the natural/physical, because we work in both realms.

We, therefore, have been given a mindset by Holy Spirit, via Paul, that in the Kingdom we're all the same. We're all physically different, not equal, but we are equivalent. That's going to be very hard for us to deal with because we constantly look at the exterior, rather than the interior. It will help is to think rightly if we remember that the Trinity looks at the heart, not at the exterior. That also helps us to realise that the real 'us' is inside of us and that's what we need to focus on.

We need to change our attitudes. We can't get involved in anything that separates us. As you may remember, 'heresy' from the NT Greek means 'what separates us' – that may be something that's correct or something that's an error. There are to be no splits, no schisms, and no heresies in an ekklesia or Kingdom Community.

Race is one of the factors that causes us to be separate, so that brings us the the current 'flavour of the month', CRT (Critical Race Theory). We need to ask, "What is it, and is it relevant for us as sons?" I don't know any real facts about CRT, or its history, so I'll let Dr. Tony Evans<sup>5</sup> explain it in his video teaching.

He's written a book on race issues,<sup>6</sup> so he's researched it well. His video is worth listening to as he gives the definition of CRT, its history, and how its morphed into something that's been taken over by the Left and Marxists. Watch it all the way through as it's vital, and part of the knowledge you need to talk to others for their proper understanding.

In the video, he presents his own, Christian alternative to CRT which he calls Kingdom Race Theology. As I don't use the term 'theology' except when referring to the beliefs in the church system, I choose to use the term Kingdom Race Mindset (KRM) instead. That's because it's our attitude that has to change so we think in line with Heaven, and that's more important than any theology.

While watching Evans' video, Troy Black received the following important prophetic message:

"This is a message of warning, correction and encouragement for My people."

I was mostly unfamiliar with critical race theory, and I did not realize He was specifically addressing the topic I was about to hear.

He continued saying, "I'm moving in a major way right now among the body of Christ. Major shifts are happening in My people's hearts and in the structures they call church and ministry. This is meant to be a body, and I'm making adjustments to help it work the way I designed it, not the way people prefer. Prejudice, racism and religious tradition have gotten in the way of what I'm doing, but it won't be that way for long. You're either on My team or you're not.""<sup>7</sup>

If you liked Evans' first session, he also has a second one:

At the beginning of #2 he summarizes session #1 and then goes into an extended bible study.
