

MESSAGE: “That’s My Plan for My Sons”

*This is a message I received from a prophetic trainee who receives messages at the present time as a series of short deposits rather than a streaming download*¹

“The lamb was slain...finished...The lion is to roar...Where are my voices? Where are they that make violent declarations...my generals...Fear is not your trade...I am doing what you declare...It’s takeover for family, community, and nations...Declare what I say...See what I do...That was and is my plan for my sons.”

COMMENT: This is an important message that confirms clearly and succinctly what our King has been saying to us for quite some time now. Take heed. (Laurence)
