

The Right Focus

(A conversational prophetic message recorded on the 19th November 2023)

! IMPORTANT: This is an apostolic¹ message that many will find hard to receive and some will most likely reject. Despite any objections, the King's message needs to be disseminated for those who will receive it. !

Question: Lord, what's your message to your people in Australia today?

MESSAGE

"It's important that you understand what your mind must be focused on, as sons of the Kingdom. Your thought patterns, and your focus, are different in the Kingdom to what it is in the world around you. This is difficult for my people to understand because they've lived in the world all their lives and they're used to thinking the way the world thinks. I understand that, but it's important that they get teaching and instruction on how to use their mind for my Kingdom. How they are to focus on the things of the Kingdom, and how they maintain those things that they have authority over and that they have responsibility for in the natural [realm]². There's a fine balance here.

I know that in these times, there's been a focus on Reality TV, and that's caused the people of the world to focus on the lives of others, rather than on their own lives,³ which they are responsible to me for. The news media adds to this by continuing to delve into people's lives and things which are basically unimportant. But because there's been this pressure over many years, from the media and from TV, my people – and the people of Australia – have been focusing where their mind doesn't need to be, for much of their daily lives.

Like a mature person who understands priorities, and knows what to focus on to achieve what needs to be achieved every day, my people need to change the way they think. They're either focused on their problems and their issues, or they're focusing on religion, or in many cases, they're focused on what's going on in the world around them, and that distracts them from their work in the Kingdom, and from hearing from me. It also stops them from surrendering to me as I mold⁴ them and shape them, and want to train them to be functional, mature sons, because they're distracted. At the moment, their distraction is on the Middle East, and maybe it's on China, because of the threats of war and of insurgencies.

Basically, 'it comes down to' what they fear, or where their heart is. In the Kingdom, your heart belongs to me, and there is no fear. So, if my people's heart is elsewhere, and they are operating in any level of fear, it indicates that they're not maturing in their sonship.

This is a call today, for my people to focus their minds where it needs to be, which is, as I stated, on the Kingdom, and on those things they have authority and responsibility for.⁵ Anything else is a distraction. Sure, there is employment and vocation, which are essential for bringing in finance to run the household, but they fit under the umbrella of responsibilities. There's nothing wrong with being appropriately focused on your employment, because you owe a responsibility to your employer.

But, for sons, the bulk of their time should be listening to the Spirit, being engaged in Kingdom assignments,⁶ and making sure that their earthly responsibilities are carried out with their family and wherever they have authority. Those are indications of more mature functionality.

I've addressed many topics in the past, for my people in Australia. For example: Their attitudes towards Israel;⁷ their attitudes towards the Middle East;⁸ their attitudes to me,⁹ and to their nation.¹⁰ But in this time of turmoil, their minds drift to the problems, the issues, and onto the lives of other people and other nations that are not their responsibility to focus on. So, I call my people back to where their priorities and their focus must be, which is always on the Kingdom and on their responsibilities in life.

This message is not one of correction, as the world understands correction. It's a message of instruction to my people, to direct them in the ways that they need to go, because, from my perspective, from a big overview of the nation of Australia, my people are wandering around in a daze, unsure of where they're going, unsure of what's ahead, unsure of themselves, even, when in the Kingdom, everything is assured. Which is why listening to my communication, as well as [effectively]¹¹ communicating with me to find out what needs to be known, is of great priority.

Come, my people. Come into alignment with me, and function the way that sons are meant to function. Then, my Kingdom will march forward in your nation as you desire.”

CCOP is a company of prophetic people that the Lord established out of a School For Prophets that Robert Misst (NZ) ran in Canberra in 2012-2013. New members are being identified and trained all the time. Our mandate is to rise up to be a genuine Australian prophetic voice to the nation and to our community. Our mode of operation aligns with the restoration of the message from the throne, so that like Jeremiah, we release whatever is on the heart and mind of our King, whether it is appreciated or not by others. As watchmen, we deliver what we receive as we are accountable to do so. Our function is to prophetically speak into the local and national community via prophetic counsel, both as a company and when requested to by community and business leaders outside of the established church. As Elijah-like prophetic people, we have committed ourselves wholeheartedly to our King for him to use us as a force for Kingdom change in Australia. Since 2017 CCOP has been expanded to function as a network of prophetic voices.

NOTE: We are independent and not members of any prophetic alliance. Holy Spirit is our leader and King Jesus is our head and oversight.
