

More on this Current Time in the Kingdom

(October 2023)

Following on from the prophetic insight I was given concerning the current season we are in,¹ a time when Forerunners are leading the vanguard for the restoration of all things, this is an update. More information is being received to cement this time in our understanding and to equip us with the knowledge we need to move forward without deviation. There will be glory rising alongside the rise of darkness, so we must focus on where we are going and make sure we are aligning with Heaven every step of the way. Read on!

There are very, very few prophetic messages around of relevance to what's going on in the Kingdom right now

KINGDOM MESSAGES

Marsha Burns

(★ Prophetic downloads recorded in October 2023)

"I will lead you to a high place in the Spirit," says the Lord. "Progression will be your theme as you move with Me. I have things to show you, but you need to make sure that your reach is beyond your grasp; that your expectation is beyond what you can see in the natural realm. That which seems impossible will become possible when you align your will with Mine.""²

"This time of transition is nearing a close, and you will begin to settle into the new cycle. It might resemble where you have been, but there will be things of the past that will fade away, and a sense of renewal will be evident. For some it will seem like never-ending upheaval like a storm passing through, and for others it will be like a gentle breeze. Keep your spiritual focus either way."³

“You are on a path that will lead you into higher realms of the Spirit and will reveal the things you need to know in this season. It will be a path that will reveal purpose and where you fit in the scheme of things. Pay attention so that you do not miss spiritual revelation.”⁴

“The referendum ⁵ displayed what you have been [personally] ⁶ asking for. ⁷ That is, the exposing of those things that are hidden and covert. I remind all my people in Australia, that it is their responsibility for what happens in Australia. Whatever happens in this nation is primarily a factor of their alignment with me.

The things that transpire in your nation, not only relate to my plans, but how you work with me in the areas that I show you to work. You’re in a partnership with me – which may be news to some of you – as we work together for the benefit of your nation. I don’t do everything, and neither do angels. It’s absolutely critical that you understand that. You are responsible for your nation.

Whatever you work for, that’s in alignment with me, moves forward in that direction. While ever you work against me, either actively or in ignorance, my plans can’t be brought to fruition. This referendum is just one of those, where I wanted my people to continue to listen to me so that my plans could come to pass. But just as important, the plans of others with different agendas, could be curtailed, stymied, and cut off.

It was important with this referendum, for you to ask me how you should vote, and then vote appropriately. When I didn’t give you an answer, or you didn’t hear my answer, you were responsible to vote logically, with the best interests of your nation [in mind] ⁸, not out of emotion, and not for any politically correct ⁹ reasons.

I organised for a number of my people in Australia to continue on a daily basis, to decree and to work towards the display of those things that were hidden and covert, the different agendas that were working against your nation. And you can see that I raised up the voice of those who knew what they were talking about, so that Australians could get ‘both sides of the story’, because the NO vote was suppressed by the YES vote and the politicians. It was a critical victory for my people who aligned with me in working against those forces that are trying to destroy your society and destroy you as a nation.

You’ll notice that it didn’t come down to my people demonstrating or rioting in the streets, or losing control and becoming hysterical in their endeavours to express their beliefs. It was all done calmly and coolly in the background.

Take this as a seminal moment for my people in Australia, that they are responsible for what happens, and they need to work with me, in alignment with me, and to work in Kingdom principles that relate to operating in the spirit, rather than operating religiously. Now we can move forward, if more of my people join me in partnership, being careful to listen to me, and being circumspect about what they say and do.

Australia is in good hands with those who are in alignment with me, working with me as sons, and who are focused on seeing my plans implemented in this nation, so it can enter its destiny. That’s an important thing to consider, by the way, your nation has a destiny, not just individuals. When making decisions, especially voting for elections and referendums of all sorts, consider what’s best for the nation as a whole, so it can move forward and enter the destiny that I have for it, rather than any politically correct

5 – This message relates to the indigenous ‘Voice to Parliament’ referendum to change Australia’s constitution on 14th October 2023, which did not succeed. Information about this national referendum to change the constitution can be found on the internet.

6 – Added so the intent of the statement is clear. [LDS]

7 – This sentence is directed to those who have been spiritually active in the area of exposing the hidden and covert actions of individuals, entities, organisations and political parties, which are working to destroy our society and Australia as a nation.

8 – Added so the intent of the statement is clear. [LDS]

9 – i.e. Woke agenda

or emotional thoughts that you might have.

Again, this result – although not a happy result for every person – is an example of what happens when a percentage of my people work with me for the benefit of their nation.

Now, I must say that I don't take sides in this or in any election or debate. I'm only interested in Father's plans being implemented in your nation and around the world, which is my responsibility. Although, I will always be working against unrighteousness, against those things that are counterproductive, or that counteract what I'm wanting to do. But, I can only achieve success when my people know what I'm doing and work with me.

So, 'the ball's in your court'. Time to align with me, stay connected to my plans, and you'll see Australia move forward, ever-so slowly, but increasingly changing to be the nation that it's destined to be.

*Join me. There's a fight. The fight is about alignment with me, not about demonstrations, prayer vigils, preachings from pulpits. It's about every one of my people siding with me, so that the spiritual atmosphere in Australia changes – and that doesn't take 100% co-operation. It's less than that. So take heart, and join me.*¹⁰

>> There's more to come, but you must keep watching and listening for yourself <<
