More on this Current Time in the Kingdom

(October 2026)

Following on from the prophetic insight I was given concerning the current season we are in,[1] a time when Forerunners are leading the vanguard for the restoration of all things, this is an update. More information is being received to cement this time in our understanding and to equip us with the knowledge we need to move forward without deviation. There will be glory rising alongside the rise of darkness, so we must focus on where we are going and make sure we are aligning with Heaven every step of the way. Read on!

NOTE: There are very, very few prophetic messages around of relevance to what's going on in the Kingdom right now.

►In addition, I have not included any prophetic messages that don't measure up to an acceptable standard of Kingdom style and content◄

KINGDOM MESSAGES

King's Counsel (Canberra)

(★ Message received on 8-10-2026)

Question: Lord, what does the Gospel of the Kingdom really look like in comparison to the gospel that's preached these day?

Message

"There's a huge difference between the two – they're 'light-years apart', to be precise. When I came as Jesus of Nazareth, I spoke the Gospel of the Kingdom to everyone I connected with. That was because I was re-introducing the Kingdom back onto Earth (as the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth), the way it was meant to be from Creation.

This is why it's so important that my people really 'get'[4] what it is to be in our family. It's not about placating us because of their misbehaviour. It's not about doing good to get 'brownie points'[5] with us. It's not about religious activity – which they think is what we want. In truth, it's about waking up through a paradigm shift through revelation, to what the Kingdom on Earth really is – and it's not about church. It's not about Christianity, and it's not about anything other than the reality of 'what it is'. To use an expression: 'It is what it is'. I can't make it any plainer than that.

The Kingdom is here, right now. It was always meant to be here, right now, since the work that I did back in the first century. However, my people have gone astray for too long, and it's pleasing to see groups of them coming to the realisation of what the Kingdom is really about. I'm so pleased that this is taking place, but there's still a long way to go, because waking up to the realisation is only just the foundation of what needs to happen from there on.

My people need to learn what it means to live in the Kingdom today, and then they need to grow and mature in their sonship. And, they need to experience life in the Kingdom, [and] spiritual experiences that are beyond discounting[6] by those who criticise what's been experienced. Then they need to be able to spread the news of the Kingdom, which in common parlance is the Gospel of the Kingdom. And so, to bring people into the reality of what is, rather than the false narrative of what it is not.

My people need to speak about the Kingdom in factual matters, not in theology, not in biblical teaching, but from their own experience. That being said, they cannot express the full[7] Gospel of the Kingdom – that is, the full greatness and good news of the Kingdom – unless they've experienced it themselves. It can't be just head knowledge, because when they speak head knowledge, people will not resonate with it, in the main. Head knowledge only imparts head knowledge to somebody else, it doesn't lead them into experiences.

Apart from speaking out the real, true Gospel of the Kingdom, they need to start mentoring people. They need to begin training them, bringing them into spiritual experiences, working them through their difficulties in understanding, working them through the problems of life, [all][8] from the Kingdom's perspective. But they can't do that unless they are already successful in living the Kingdom life themselves.

So, that's the train of progression through[9] coming into an understanding of the Kingdom. It's not a short-term thing – it's long-term (generational in nature) into the future. The important thing is that my people understand the Gospel of the Kingdom, but they should also be speaking accurately so they're not presenting a pretence of what the Kingdom is like, but the truth, the spiritual reality of what it is.

The Gospel of the Kingdom is about humanity being restored to our family, as they were originally designed to be, so that they no longer live out of a lost identity, but they regain their identity as sons (Kingdom sons), and they operate in partnership with us as we designed them to. That's our plan, for them, to work with us in the governance of Earth, of the natural realm, and with experience and maturity, in the whole cosmos. That sounds like a wildly fantastical[10] statement, but it's the reality.

So, it should be quite plain to see that the evangelical gospel that's being preached for so long, doesn't come 'within a bull's roar'[11] of what the reality of the Kingdom really is. You see, it's not about bringing people into salvation so they're saved from destruction and judgement. It's about bringing them into sonship and functionality in our family in the oversight of the natural realm.

I mean, it's pretty clear from the scripture's statement that "we will judge the angels"[12]. If humans are going to judge the angels, then they can't be subordinate to angels. Sons are in a higher status than angels, hence why my people will be able to judge them.

So, I'll make it quite clear: The Gospel of the Kingdom is about receiving everything that the Kingdom has to offer in this life and in 'The Age to Come'. Everything belongs to "the sons of the most high God" (as the ancient expression goes), and that "everything" is available now.

To appropriate that, those who come into the Kingdom must work with us, so we can train them to access it. That's not by giving them secret methods, but by training them, teaching them, encouraging them, and experiencing them, so they can achieve that for themselves. Then, we will guide them, as they grow in their maturity and advance into things that are quite astonishing to the world today.

I've spoken about life in the Kingdom in the past,[13] so I leave it to my people to check that out."[14]

NATIONAL MESSAGES

King's Counsel (Canberra)

(★ Message received on 2017) [re-posted]

Background: I asked our King if religious activities affected our nation positively.

Message

"You want to know about impact? Your very existence on this planet, on this Earth that I created is to impact it. My plans and my purposes are to impact Earth – the planet itself and the living things on it – through you. You must get this and get it firmly fixed in your heart and mind and soul. As my sons, you are here to impact. What you do, what you say, what you declare, what's in your heart, all these things will impact this nation either positively or negatively. I want you to focus on that. Do you understand? As my sons, you were made in my likeness and in my image, and you have that ability to impact this planet – impact Earth and its inhabitants for me.

Watch your language. Watch your heart, guard it. Watch what you do. Guard and watch your thoughts. Because all of these things either allow me to work in this planet through you or it gives the enemy the go-ahead to do his work. It's all about spiritual authority, as you know. But in this time and in this season, in these last days it's imperative that you understand the importance of your place as the rulers of this planet. I have given you dominion, and now that you have come back into my Kingdom as my sons, that rulership is now re-established in you through my Son.

If you want to impact this nation and impact it for good, then it's all in your hands. Don't look to the government. Don't look to the powers that work in your nation. Look to yourselves, your brothers and your sisters, and start working in unison with my Holy Spirit. Start living and speaking and being and thinking in ways that will impact this nation. I have plans for this nation, plans to raise it up as a 'leader nation', plans to bring it to the fore. But it requires my people to be active and working in parallel with me, in alignment with me, so that my plans can come to fruition.

This is the impact you should be looking for. Seek me, celebrate me. Find out what my plans and my purposes are and implement them in your environment, in your local area, in your homes, in your cities and towns, and in your businesses and schools. When all my sons work together like this, there will be a shift. A spiritual shift which will manifest in the natural, and there will be an impact. An impact that this nation has never seen before, far greater than any proposed or thought-of revival. The wholesale movement of my sons in alignment with me is like a tidal wave that will sweep across this nation and have great impact. Some will see it as devastation, but for me it is my heart's desire and my delight to see my sons being about my business in this nation.

So rise up sons, gird your loins, as the Old Testament phrase goes, and get ready for battle. Get ready to impact this nation. Remember, it starts with your homes and your streets and your towns and your cities, before it goes to the nation. Set your eyes to the immediate – what your territory is, the Kingdom that you rule. Take authority there. Align yourself with me there and expand as I grow you, so that it spreads like a network across the nation, from city to city and town to town, so that the nation is impacted. This will be a glorious time, a time when the glory that I have in you will be displayed, and all will see it. I will see it. The other nations will see it. It will not be able to be hidden. What an impact! That's the impact that my heart's desire is working towards – make it yours."[15]
