

:::EXTRACT:::

This file contains a few relevant extracts from Paul Wilbur's 2017 document of prophetic words.

"...I have chosen you and not rejected you. I am removing darkness from you. Confusion and deception will be far from you. I have placed a robe on your shoulders and a ring on your finger, and I call you My friend. I also call you My sword; yes, for me, you are My Word made flesh."

"In this hour, I am calling forth a sword to leave the comfort of the sheath. For what glory is there when you only prophesy to one another? Where is the glory when you only lay hands on one another? Where is My Glory when you only speak the word of truth to one another, when so many pass by and never know of the glory that is hidden behind the walls?"

"I ripped the curtain in two! For the glory was not reserved for just a few, but so all might see and taste and enjoy the One who calls you out of darkness into the light of My marvelous Presence. Can you hear the thunder in the distance, the pounding of the hooves of the horses? For indeed, they are coming, and a great darkness is preparing to cover the whole earth."

"But now I am calling you to leave the comfort of the sheath, for now is the time for My Word to be revealed. It's a call to a new generation! You've heard it said in generations past, "Don't speak of these things; they are personal; they are private." But don't you know that those words were spoken by those who did not know Me?

Their silence was their sheath, their hiding place. And for generation after generation the enemy has devised systems to take away the voice of the righteous, even with the writing and implementation of laws.

But now, let the righteous arise! This is not for the meek, not for the drive-by or the occasional believer. This is not for the goats or for those who have been ashamed of My name. This is for the brave. This word is for those who have been called out of fear. For My love has destroyed their fear and caused them to be an instrument of praise. Who will declare, "I am not ashamed of the gospel?" For in that declaration, the doing of the works of My Father are evident in their hands.

And this is for those who declare, "I am not afraid!..."
