

Signposts of the Pathway into Deep Oneness

If oneness with the Trinity (or just with Jesus) is your heart's desire, how do you know your getting there? One could come up with lots of answers to that question, but the most sure way is what Father (or King Jesus) has been saying to you personally about your oneness journey.

As assistance, there are a number of signposts that you are on the right track. Here's a couple of them from a video mentoring session given by Justin Paul Abraham:

“There's this company, people who have set themselves apart to go into the realm of Heaven, to go into the realm of love, to start to walk arm-in-arm with God in The Presence. Now for many of you, you know you were made for this before you were born. It's like the echo was already in your heart and your whole life didn't make sense because you had an unusual longing for God, an unusual desire for God, that's not balanced. When others were satisfied with the meeting, you had this hunger. When other people were getting whacked¹, you were just warming up.

You have a lament in your heart, as well, which I discovered is part of the calling. There's a longing, there's a joy. There's a longing, there's a pain of suffering. Longing for the clothing of the Beloved, being one with him – fully one with him. And I've actually realized that's a big part of the way God motivates you to take you into these realms. He creates the longing in your heart...and you start to realize, “Actually the suffering that I'm experiencing was God's hand.” We think it's suffering because we made a mistake. “Maybe I spoke wrong. Maybe I did it wrong. Maybe I was too emotional. Maybe I was too ecstatic. Maybe I was too whacked. Maybe I was too prophetic”, and you suffered.

But what I've discovered is that suffering is part of the graduation of this pathway into the expanded life of mystical union with Yahweh². That descending on this walk, there's something on this walk, where you suffer longing, and you long for him and you desire him in an abnormal way, that his hand is upon you. It's why you're on a [video] call like this. It's why you're partnering with a group like ours, that are hidden away, because you are seeking the realm. And actually, what I've discovered is, that's God seeking you. And what we do is, we learn in this season, “How now do I synchronize with that”, because you're experiencing the longing he has, the suffering that he has, longing for us.”³

The oneness journey can be a bit scary if you're not in complete rest and trust, so some of you may be feeling a bit tentative. To be sure, everyone's experience is unique and different, but I hope that what Justin has said has been of benefit to some of my readers.
