The basis of our impact on the Earth (i.e. the world system, as well the natural realm) is our Creation status as planet-managers.

Walking in sonship, in aligning with Heaven, allows us to walk in that authority.

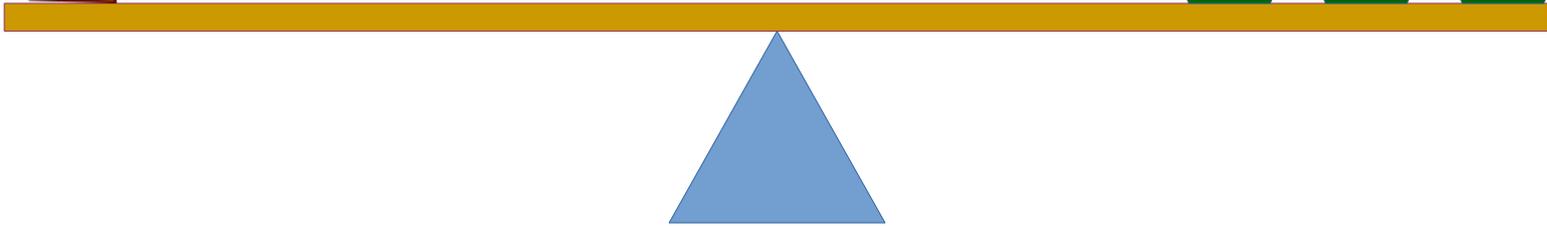

When we don't walk as genuine sons, &/or are out of alignment with Heaven, we are impotent.

The Dominance of the World System over Christianity

Christianity

World System

Christians don't operate in their spiritual authority so they are outweighed by the sheer numbers of others

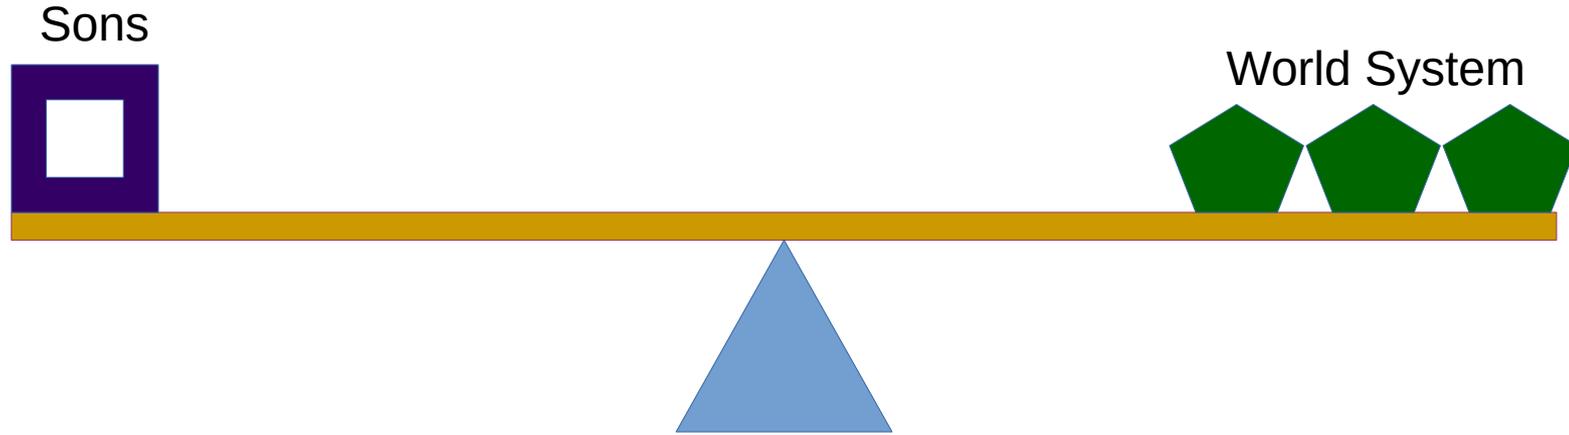

When I was a Christian, I didn't really know about my sonship.

Also, for about 95% of my life I was out of alignment with Heaven because religion was my focus.

From observation, this is the experience of most Christians that I meet.

The Initial Impact of Sons

Sons do function in spiritual authority but they are still outweighed by the sheer numbers of others

Sons, who know who they are, and function that way, are being raised up all over the world.

They are learning to align with Heaven, and are therefore having some impact on Earth.

The Impact of More Sons

Numbers don't need to be equal as sons have great spiritual authority on Earth

Yes, the 50% democratic principle doesn't apply in the Kingdom and how it impacts Earth.

Sons who align with Heaven, have the greatest impact on Earth.

That's without involving standard spiritual warfare.

To change the spiritual atmosphere in Australia, what it takes is for sons to mature more in their sonship and to align themselves strongly with Heaven. That alignment is through their mental assent, heart agreement and by compliance with Father's leading.

Days of prayer and fasting will not achieve what's required because Father is working through sons who concur with him, and he then makes changes in our nation the Kingdom way.

Mike Parsons wrote:

“...This is a restoration of all things prophecy that is being fulfilled as I am writing this: the glory of the sons of God is being revealed to creation as we arise and shine by discovering our God-given identities and taking our places seated in the heavenlies. How the Bible frames our understanding of our future will greatly influence what we believe about our sonship and what is possible in restoration. →

→ Our expectations of the future will also determine what we will believe about our part in its fulfilment. If you believe that God is going to destroy the heavens and the earth with fire, as many do, that will affect how you understand your responsibility to steward the planet and its resources.”
