

How things fit together in the Kingdom

The Imperative of Alignment in the Kingdom

IMPORTANT: This article is an analysis of my article, ‘The Trinity’s Messages About Alignment With Them’¹. Read that article before reading this one.

Introduction

Until 2016, I never considered that the Trinity wanted me to be in alignment with them. I’d been a believer since I was 16, but I’d never heard of this desire that they had of us. All I was ever taught was that we needed to follow the Ten Commandments and what Paul wrote in the epistles. Most believers probably haven’t heard the alignment message either.

I was taught that I was an ambassador for the King, representing him to the world, but I failed to realise that an ambassador has no thoughts of their own to express, only those of their government. To do that, an ambassador has to have their mind in total alignment with the government’s policies, right up to the very moment when they speak. That up-to-date-ness is important because governments can change their position on matters at any moment, and the ambassador must relay what’s current, not what’s ‘old’.

Like an ambassador we need to have the Trinity’s mind on things so we can relate them to whomever we speak to. However, to get their mind, we don’t need the Bible as our reference point. NO! Our reference point – our source – is their thoughts right now. That’s what they expect of us, not referencing scriptures from the past which were written to a different audience than ourselves. To get their ‘now word’, we need to hear clearly from them, but that ability only comes with practice and attention to the spiritual skill involved.

That’s not the end of it. We also need to know their heart, as well as their mind, and that’s a bigger task for us all. This is why they are expecting us to form an intimate relationship with them that grows deeper and deeper into oneness. Oneness is their greatest desire (not worship or obedience) because they are relational beings, not ‘Greek-styled’ gods. The oneness that they desire will bring us totally into alignment with them – if we let it happen – so that we think, speak and act like them, and have their attitudes on all things.

Can you now see why total alignment with them is critical for sons?

Analysis

Here’s a précis of what they have given to us about being in alignment with them. These are summarized from the Trinity’s prophetic messages that we’ve received.

1. We are called to be in alignment with them, with Heaven and with the Kingdom.
2. Sons are expected to be in alignment, as that’s their desire for us.
3. Alignment is with their heart and mind.

4. Our imagination is also to be in alignment with them.
5. Our mind and soul need to come into alignment with our spirit, so that our spirit can align us with the Spirit.
6. We are out of alignment when we do what we want.
7. We are out of alignment when we are ignorant of our need for alignment.
8. We work against their plans when we operate out of alignment with them – even unintentionally.
9. They can't achieve what they need to on the Earth because their people are out of alignment.
10. Our nation will change for the better when larger numbers of believers come into alignment with them.
11. We can't enter the destiny they have for us while ever we're out of alignment with them.
12. The spiritual atmosphere of a nation changes for good when large numbers come into alignment.
13. Our nation can't enter the destiny they have for it until believers come into alignment with them
14. The Kingdom only expands effectively when sons operate out of alignment, not from their mind and soul.
15. We personally prosper in the Kingdom when we come into alignment.
16. Families prosper, are more blessed, and function better, when the parents are in alignment with Heaven.
17. When we're in alignment, we focus on the things that matter to the Kingdom and on our personal responsibilities, not the distractions of the world and its issues.

Conclusion

As you can see from the 60 messages they gave us about alignment (which I've quoted in the parent document to this one)², that alignment is not an option, it's imperative for us as sons and for the Kingdom.

I'll finish with just one quote from their messages:

“Come, my people. Come into alignment with me, and function the way that sons are meant to function. Then, my Kingdom will march forward in your nation as you desire.”³
