

The Instruction to Access What's Rightfully Yours

There's so much we're missing out on as sons. Religion has kept it from us. Fear still keeps it from us, even as we become aware of what's rightfully ours.

Here our King instructs us to access what's personally ours, not just the rights of sons:

*"I have given you the keys to My Kingdom," says The LORD. "Not only do you have access to My very throne, I have given you the keys that give you entrance into the storehouse of blessings. Yes, I have given you the keys. That means ownership, for all that I have is yours. I have not kept any good thing from you. I have not denied you access. Use your keys to open the doors of blessings that already belong to you. You have been given entitlement to possess those things that I have already laid up in store for you. My death on the cross paid in full for every benefit and you became My entitled child as you received all that I purchased for you by faith in Me. My Shed Blood on the cross has cleansed you and made you worthy," says The LORD."*¹

We rejected the 'prosperity gospel' because it was self-gratifying, but we mustn't think that there's no prosperity in the Kingdom. There is. If the OC was just a shadow of the NC, and the NC is a better covenant, why do we reject the material benefits of The Kingdom right now? Obviously, it's because religion has programmed us to have a pauper mentality because that's the only one that pleases 'God'².

The enemy doesn't want us to receive the blessings and favour of the Kingdom because that would encourage many, many others to come into the Kingdom. That's why he constantly accuses us of being selfish and sinful so we remain restricted in what we draw from the Kingdom. We know that fear is one of his main tools, but so are accusation and condemnation. We must overcome all three of these if we're to receive what's rightfully ours.

Remember, our course is to follow the Spirit, not our own understanding. If he leads us into wealth, property, and other areas that Christians believe are evil or unrighteous, we are to follow him. He'll lead us into our receiving what's rightfully ours if we drop our religious defences and allow him to do it.

NOTE: It's our heart attitude and what we do with our Kingdom benefits that can be unrighteous, not the benefits themselves. For Example: Money in itself isn't evil.

Taking a different tack, we've heard of numerous people visiting Heaven, being translated, participating in the courts of Heaven, talking with angels, engaging with Wisdom as a person, being miraculously provided for, etc., but we look at those instances with suspicion. These are supposed to be normal for sons. They're part of our inheritance as Father's sons – and, there's so much more.

It's about time we cast off all religious baggage and fear, and allowed the Spirit to do whatever he wants with us. That's the only way we're going to enter our destiny and to receive our portion of Kingdom benefits.

Don't wait until the supposed Millennial Reign to receive all that's yours. Doing that is like waiting for the supposed Rapture – you'll miss out on all that's yours right now.

Your Favour to Make an Impact

Here's some helpful teaching on the topic from Faith Baczko:

"Recently, I have been hearing these words in my spirit: "For the set time to favor her has come." God sets the timing for favor to be released according to His purposes and for specific seasons. The Body of Christ is being established, now, and positioned by God into a new sphere of supernatural favor to accomplish His plan and His will in the season ahead!

2 – 'God': I use this term in inverted commas because 'God' is the generic term people use, while I don't any more. I have an intimate relationship with the members of the Trinity, so I refer to them by name out of relationship. Out of my oneness with them, I also refer to them as The Trinity.

The enemy is counteracting with fierce warfare against the people of God, and we can easily miss the movement that is breaking us out by becoming distracted by our personal warfare. This is a year that requires a new breed of saints to arise; who will accept nothing less than their full inheritance and press in the spirit toward the open door that is before them! The bones are coming together; an army is arising as the breath of God blows on us this year!

There are places where God is about to take us, and things He has ordained for us to do that only He can orchestrate. These are things that require a supernatural intervention that we cannot do for ourselves. When the appointed time arrives, God's favor will suddenly open doors; phone calls will be received and divine appointments will occur. Events will happen – almost out of no where – to aid and benefit us for the road ahead.

God will bring us to the forefront and position us where He needs us to be in order to release the influence assigned to us. We each have been given a voice of influence to affect the atmosphere around us and usher in God's Kingdom purposes...

Finances will come in on time to support the work and to get the job done. Things will happen spontaneously because God is on your side and is working to bring you into your place of influence assigned to you for 2022 and the years ahead. You have been faithful and obedient over the years, persevering through the trials and waiting for your time; now God says, "The time of favor has come!"...

God has ordained set times of favor for His people, and for individuals—their due season. Sometimes these times are appointments in His presence where He imparts what is needed for the new assignment. God will not ask you to do what He is not prepared to support and will ensure takes place. However, to occupy the new place prepared for you will require what may seem to be a risk but are just steps of faith causing you to press through the new doors and occupy your new territory!

Favor to accomplish the will of God is completely orchestrated by Him. It is not anything that you can work up or strive to attain. The people who need to find you will find you. God's plan will search you out and establish you. When you honor God with your life and honor what He honors, the doors of favor will begin to swing wide open for you. When you keep God in first place, as your number one priority, He does the same for you! Doors will begin to open that no one can shut; and when He shuts doors that need to be shut from the past, no one can open them again. We have stepped into a new day; the old doors are shut!"³

Your Part in Receiving What's Yours

What's rightfully yours as a son doesn't come passively – you have to work on it with the Spirit guiding you.

No effort expended on your part means you gain nothing more than what you have now

As an example of doing that, listen to Mike Parsons sharing⁴ on how he went through the process of becoming a "living sacrifice", aligning with Father, encountering Heaven so he could rule as a king in the areas that were his. (It's all biblically based for those who must have it that way.)
