

Thoughts About the Future are Pure Fantasy

Yes, we waste time and emotional energy thinking about the future.

If we seek the Kingdom and an intimate relationship with Father as our main priorities, all our needs will be met. Then, when we let him supervise our life circumstances, he'll meet our needs (not always our desires) and everything will fall into place the way he wants it to. That's why worrying about the future, and becoming anxious and fearful about it, is not something that sons should be doing. In fact those activities work against the Kingdom in your life.

Life in the Kingdom is about spiritual and natural reality. That's why we need to get our mind organised around that concept so we can be successful in our endeavours.

Father has recently reminded us to do that:

“Refuse to dwell on what might happen in the future. Whatever you envision it to be is only fantasy and not reality. What you need to do is make the best of today and do what you can do now. Your obsession will only create anxiety. Trust Me to be with you in every circumstance, and do not be afraid.”¹

Let the future take care of it self by putting it all into Father's hands – and taking yours off.

Laurence

7-11-2021

(www.CanberraForerunners.org)

COPYRIGHT

This document is free to copy, republish and distribute, but only 'as is'. It is free to quote from at length.

All Canberra Forerunners' documents are licensed under

Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License

Quotes are the copyright of their authors.

Free graphics are from www.clker.com & free photos are from commons.wikimedia.org unless otherwise credited.

(Readers will need to look up for themselves any scriptures alluded to in this document)

1 – Marsha Burns “Small Straws in the Soft Wind” (November 6, 2021) www.ft111.com/straws2021.htm