- ★ “Gender medicine for children and young people is built on shaky foundations”
“Nowadays we have the three pillars of evidence based medicine to lean on: the integration of best available research evidence with clinical expertise, and patient values and preferences. My independent review into gender identity services for children and young people is published today. When conducting the review, I found that in gender medicine those pillars are built on shaky foundations.”

- “Rates of Suicide Attempts Doubled After Gender-Reassignment Surgery: Study” “Attempted suicide rates among people who identified as transgender more than doubled after receiving a vaginoplasty, according to a peer-reviewed study published in The Journal of Urology. The study analyzed the rates of psychiatric emergencies before and after gender-altering surgery among 869 males who underwent vaginoplasty and 357 females who underwent phalloplasty in California from 2012 to 2018.”

- “DEI Cronyism and Woke Grifters”
“When ideology replaces meritocracy or provides immunity from the consequences of illegal behavior, systemic mediocrity follows. Under toxic National Socialism, Stalinism, and Maoism, millions of cronies and grifters¹ mouthed party lines in hopes that their approved ideologies would allow them to advance their careers and excuse their lawbreaking. The same thing has happened with the woke movement and the now-huge diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) conglomerate. Grifters and opportunists mask their selfish agendas under the cloak of neo-Marxist care for the underprivileged or victimized minorities. Meanwhile, they seek to profit illegally as if they were old-fashioned crony capitalists.”

- Editorial: “Wokeism - Yesterday’s Conspiracy Theory”
“Following a recent study, there are dozens of known endocrine-disrupting chemicals whose effects could and should be investigated in relation to transgenderism. Yesterday’s conspiracy theory is today’s reality. Especially if it was never a conspiracy theory in the first place. Just ask Alex Jones. Eight years ago, Alex Jones, the founder of “Infowars,” was the subject of tremendous ridicule when he made the claim that chemicals in the water supply were feminizing amphibians, and probably humans too. That wasn’t quite how he put it, of course. “I don’t like ‘em putting chemicals in the water that turn the ... frogs gay!” he bellowed, in his inimitable manner, pounding the desk with his fist for emphasis.”

- “It’s Time to Stop Toeing the Line of Ideological Crazyiness”

“In a pre-publication interview for her novel that will hit bookstores April 9, American author and journalist Lionel Shriver says it’s easy to diagnose what’s wrong with today’s world. Her novel is titled “Mania“ because, Shriver explains, we are in the grip of the manifold social manias that periodically sweep through humanity. The evidence, she insists, is clear. “All that’s required is to take a step back and recognize everyone has gone nuts,” Shriver told Laura Dodsworth of The Free Mind website.”

“Lee Hazel was a detransitioner, and according to her, society’s perception of trans-identified people was flawed.”
