- ★ “The Perverse Incentives Eroding Patient Care, From the Opioid Crisis to the Gender Craze”
““When Obamacare happened, what it did was really give more power to the insurance companies and middlemen. I saw a lot of some of the smartest doctors in my group basically retire early, leave, or go into health tech. There are people that have gone into different areas in terms of autonomy, creativity, increasing their wages, but the actual clinical practice of medicine continues to have been marginalized.” Dr. Carrie Mendoza is an emergency medicine physician and an advocate for the depoliticization of health care and education.”
