- ★ “The Truth About Gender Clinics: Whistleblower Jamie Reed”
““We were bullying people into these concepts. It was an ideological bullying across the medical spectrum. And as you pull out of medicine, you see this in the schools, in journalism, in peer-reviewed publications—it’s everywhere.” In 2018, Jamie Reed began working as a case manager at a pediatric gender center. But after witnessing firsthand the irreversible effect that “gender-affirming care” was having on children, she decided to speak out. “At the end of the day in these centers, nobody was the responsible one. So, the therapists would write a letter thinking that the endocrinologist was making the decision, the endocrinologist would say, ‘But the therapist wrote the letter’. And then they would all go and say, ‘But the parents are making the decision’,” says Ms. Reed.”

- “‘Ecocide’ Agenda Could See Farmers Criminally Charged”
“Farmers could be labeled as being guilty of “ecocide,” and could face criminal prosecution for the acts of farming. This was among the more controversial positions expressed by a participant at the 2024 World Economic Forum in Davos, but it ties into an existing debate around the world on “personhood” status. Already, there is a growing movement to grant human rights to plants, animals, rivers, and even artificial intelligence. And this is raising concerns over what it means for the value of human life if everything is treated on the same value as a human life.”

“A “furry” is an individual who finds themselves spiritually aligned with, or even adopting the traits of, a specific animal species.”
