

We Live in a Much, Much Better Covenant

Most Christians live with one foot in the New Covenant (NC) and the other in the Old Covenant (OC). That's absolutely wrong.

The OC has passed (it died, it's dead and buried) and we live in the NC only. There's no OC operating in the Kingdom at the present time. Therefore, to have any theologies, mindsets and guidelines that are from the OC is to operate outside of the NC. That's like filling your diesel car with petrol because petrol has a higher octane rating and you think it'll run better with it. That, of course, is illogical and will damage the diesel engine. Get the picture?

We need to learn how to live the Kingdom life so we can contribute effectively and so we don't work against it. Remember, the religious leaders in the days of Jesus of Nazareth worked against the Kingdom that he brought with him to reinstate. They were clueless in regard to understanding the replacement of the OC with the NC – absolutely clueless.

The NC is a much better covenant than the OC, so we'd better start living in it to the full.

To help you do that, Jonathan Welton has written a book on the topic called 'The Better Covenant'. It comes out at Christmas this year (2022), so you'll have to wait for it.

In the meantime, Jonathan sent out a sample of it to his followers in the form of a distributed e-newsletter. It's not found on the internet, so I've put it up on my website for you to read and then buy the book:
