

We're Vastly More Superlative Than We've Ever Dared To Imagine

I recently produced a teaching article entitled 'We Have a Phenomenal Spiritual Status'<sup>1</sup>. For me, that was the first step in my transition to accepting who I really am – that is, from the perspective of spiritual and Kingdom realities. The next step came shortly after as I had an 'aha moment' when reading the introduction to Kirsten Hunt's new book, 'Beyond Madness'<sup>2</sup>. It was at that time that I understood who I really am – a superlative being, not a human being, not just 'a son'. That became a paradigm shift which is now urging me on to experience the fullness of myself as an imager of Father.

For a long time I have listened to Mike Parsons's<sup>3</sup> teaching on who we really are as sons and what we're capable of. I concurred with him, but was reticent to wholeheartedly accept what Father had taught him about the potential abilities and functions which relate to who we really are. They seemed very far-fetched and out of my capability to enter into. Added to his teaching, both Justin Abraham's<sup>4</sup> and Ian Clayton's<sup>5</sup> teaching seemed to 'shout out' that their experiences were for them as forerunners in that field, but not me.

Then I read Kirsten's journaling for December 23, 2023 which is located at the very start of the book:

*"You are the zero point, the centre, the "I am".
A field of cosmic energy emanates from within you,
You orchestrate a unique signature that no one else can imprint.
You hold within you the source of your creation,
You wield yourself day after day,
But do you hit your mark?
Strip away the pretence and all that you have learned, Free your inner child to play again once more.
There is truth in your inner being, waiting to be unbridled and lived out in each moment.
Your I am-ness is a stunning and unparalleled force,
Once you become in tune with this truth,
Your life's symphony will be a cognisant running composition from one note til the next.
Step out and enjoy this endless symphony you are writing,
Take great delight in each moment and each breath that you are breathing, You are living and breathing authentic life in fullness of abundance.
Know who you are from the depths of your heart,
An immovable presence, reverie and creation,
You are the "I am" of all that is life."*<sup>6</sup>

The 'aha moment' that flooded my spirit and mind was that our god-likeness is a reality – as I'd written<sup>7</sup> about – not just a theory, and that our potential as vice-regents and co-creators<sup>8</sup> is something I must embrace. I felt that grasping that fact, rather than leaving it for others, was an important step I needed to take so I could move forward<sup>9</sup> to where Father wanted me.

So now, when I read teachings such as the ones below, I can't baulk at them, but say in my heart, "Take me there Father":

"And then there is the heavenly realm called simply 'heaven', where sons rule. We have thrones there, and it is where we are seated with Christ. When we begin to occupy that place, God starts to cause us to be manifest as sons on the earth – and I'm really looking forward to that. That's when we start getting transfigured, when we start demonstrating the manifest presence of God in our lives. That's when things get really exciting.

Most of what is in these realms is to do with manifesting the authority of the kingdom. There isn't much on our scrolls that is to do with casting out demons, healing the sick, or even doing all kinds of miracles. That is just basic stuff really, that any Christian ought to be able to do. Our scrolls are mandating each of us to do particular things in the realms of heaven, they confer on us particular responsibility for the administration of the realms of heaven.

In the future, we are going to rule galaxies: that is our destiny."<sup>10</sup>

No longer will I allow the religious spirit to 'whisper' to me that this is all New Age 'mumbo jumbo'<sup>11</sup>, or that it's error (what's called 'heresy'), or that it's a distraction. Not any more.

Update

This morning Father encouraged me by providing more information about my need to go beyond where I am at the present time. That was in the form of a video and article from Mike Parsons on what Father taught him about going 'beyond beyond'<sup>12</sup>, and to do it without fear.

Here's some of what Father said to Mike, as recorded in that video:

1. "Do not worry. Do not be afraid. Trust that because we are in you, if you ask for something good – experiential truth or revelation – we will not allow deception or delusion."
2. "Those who have been deceived were leaning to their own understanding and never learned to hear our voice or know our heart. What we could not reveal to those first disciples has been continually released over the centuries to those mystics<sup>13</sup> who took the time to listen for our voice."
3. "I created all things for relationship. I have always had relationship with all things, but the time is coming for all things to know me."

Here's some of what Mike spoke about in that video:

1. "You can all go 'beyond beyond', to find and fulfil your destiny without fear. Don't be held back by fear."
2. "Walking with the Father will take you beyond your comfort zones to explore the dimensions of your position within the very fabric of creation. There is no limit. You are going to go beyond. There is no need to fear deception when you know the Father's love."
3. "[W]e are to mature as sons – to learn to rule his house, take charge of his courts, and stand in the assemblies and councils of God. That is our destiny as sons of God. But we must be prepared for this level of transformation so that we can embrace who we really are."

That whole video teaching of Mike’s, which included declarations and an activation, really settled me into my desire to put away the fear of ‘going off-track’ and to submit myself to Father to let him teach and train me in the advanced areas of sonship.

Below are some more of Mikes teachings on advanced areas of our sonship.
