

What Father is Looking for in a Local Ekklesia

Father asked us, at the end of 2020, to stop having formal meetings, while we work on relationships. He also said: “Don’t try to make anything happen, just make yourself available and don’t baulk at what I get you to do. You still have a lot to learn and a great deal more to mature in.”¹ He told us so much more, so it’s worth reading the transcript.²

So, we’ve been waiting for him to reveal more of what he wants us to know about his “new ekklesia”. We haven’t copied others, as he said, and we’ve waited for him to release his plan for us. That’s because we’re continuing to adhere to his instruction:

*“You could go with what I’ve told others, but it’s what I communicate to you that’s vital. Vital, actually, because you have the responsibility to do things differently where you are and because of who you are. Everyone is different, so our blueprint will be the same, but fine-tuning will need to be done wherever it’s implemented.”*³

It’s still important to hear what he’s said to others so we have more knowledge about his mind on this. This morning, as I was listening to Mike Parsons speaking on the positive Kingdom view of the future, he stated something I thought as important for us:

*“What God said to me is, ‘If you have a small group of people who are relationally (actually together in union) of one heart and one mind and one purpose, aligned with me, I can add a hundred, a thousand overnight. Just like that. But I won’t if the foundations aren’t right.’”*⁴

This is what he’s looking for.

When he finds this happening, he can release his blessing on any group who are operating in this way. The release happens because the group is functioning on Heaven’s blueprint, not the ideas, emotions and desires of people. That’s how the Kingdom works: Only Heaven’s blueprints connect the Spirit to the individual or group so that Heaven’s backing can flow. We need to ‘get that’. That’s why our King continually instructs us to align with him.

*“I’ve been admonishing you for many years now to align with me.”*⁵

The beauty of that is that total alignment causes us to only implement Heaven’s blueprints, so the Spirit can then move to do what needs to be done without hindrance.

Why relationships?

You see, the Trinity is relational, and it’s relationships with others and with them that’s at the centre of what they want for their ekklesia on the Earth. This is part of the background to why we have to eliminate judgement and offence from our lives.⁶ These, along with bitterness, resentment, anger, pride and fear, alienate people from each other.⁷

The change to becoming more relational and less transactional over the past 10 years has been good for us men. It’s brought us into alignment with the Father’s desire for us. Of course, we all need to be effective in transactional activities, as well as relational ones.

So, we continue to wait for more instructions, while we work on being more relational and eliminating the problem behaviours that destroy relationships.
