

Why Very Little has Happened in the Kingdom To-Date

On the 14-5-2023 I received a nudge in my spirit to report on the spiritual balance over our lives and our nation.

Question: When Jesus, The Son, re-introduced the Kingdom of Heaven back onto Earth, there should have been a great deal of continuing momentum to see it fill the whole Earth,¹ but it hasn't. Why is it so?

Question: There was great impetus with the effects of the work of the 12 Apostles and Paul at the very start, but it stopped 'dead' after they died. Why?

The answer to those questions is contained in a proper understanding of how Heaven impacts Earth. The impact of Jesus, Paul and the Apostles was neutralized by the morphing of the 1st century Kingdom Communities into a religion, which was not a spiritual entity. By the 2nd century, this religion (Christianity) was in full motion, eventually becoming the Roman Catholic and the Orthodox church organisations.

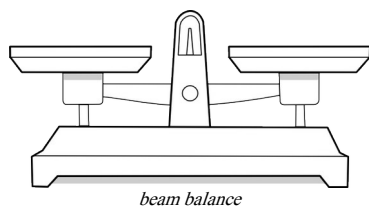

This transition into religion, through the work of Judaizers, had been going on from the very start of the ekklesia with the release of the Spirit at Pentecost in Jerusalem. These were the ones that Paul warned the early followers about because they wanted the believers to adhere to the Torah and Jewish traditions. That was the case everywhere, even among the gentile nations. Adding to the pressure to turn from spirit back to religion, was the experience of the new converts who had all come out of either Judaism or Paganism. The pressure on them to perform religiously and legalistically would have been to very great, when compared to today. The freedom and liberty they were operating under would have seemed an anathema to their religious mindset – just as it does to religion today – so they succumbed to the pressure of the religious spirit.²

The dominance of the Christian religion among the King's people since that time has meant that the Kingdom's potential takeover (insurgence³) has never eventuated. That's an unexpected result, considering that the whole weight of Heaven has been behind that takeover and is fully ready to support such a coup.

What was it that neutralized Heaven's impact on Earth so that King Jesus's Kingdom hasn't been fully installed right now, and his peace and prosperity hasn't flourished everywhere?

The reason: There wasn't enough spiritual weight of agreement from Christians in regard to Kingdom matters over the past $\approx 2,000$ ⁴ years. Their focus has been on church matters, not matters relating to the Kingdom, which of course, are the King's plans.

To bring the solution to this predicament to my attention, the King has been schooling me over the past 8 years on spiritual balance, a concept that I was unaware of from my Christian background. The balance between 'the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth' (The Kingdom) and the enemy's kingdom, is what spiritual balance is all about. However, the way that it works is not like I was taught from the pulpit. To understand it, consider a beam balance or a see-saw:

4 – \approx means 'approximately'.

These are examples of balances that tip towards the side with the most weight. That's how spiritual balance works: The spiritual kingdom with the most spiritual 'weight' tips the spiritual atmosphere of a person's life and of a nation in that direction. To get an idea of the enormity of our society's imbalance, look at this exaggerated graphic:

The point at which the balance shifts is called the 'tipping point', and the movement from then on is quick, in the direction of the most weight.

However, unlike a see-saw, a spiritual tipping point is not a 50:50 arrangement where it occurs just after the balancing point when both are equal. That's where the natural concept of a beam balance differs from spiritual balance. According to what the King told me many years ago (which I failed to record), the impact of the spirit realms on the natural realm follows mathematical formulas (formulae), which only he knows. He hasn't told me what these formulas are, and I don't want to know. Suffice to say, spiritual balance changes when the formula for it determines it to change.

The outworking of this concept is that counting the number of Christians and non-Christians in a nation won't reveal what's going on spiritually. Concomitantly with that, increasing the number of Christians will not impact the spiritual atmosphere, per se. That means, any striving done to create more Christians through evangelisation is futile, when it comes to spiritual balance for the Kingdom. That's because the balance in favour of the Kingdom is determined by believers who have their heart in line with the King, not religion, Christianity, church, gifts of the Spirit, etc.⁵

How can I say these things when they are most likely offensive to Christians? I write in the authority of the teaching that Father and our King has given to me – nothing more, nothing less.⁶

As I stated, for me to be able to understand this principle of spiritual balance, the King has been schooling me over the past 8 years. Here's some of what he's told me:

*"It's time to make a decision. Which way will you step? The future and the lives of your children and grandchildren depend on the decisions you make right now. Sure, there's opportunity to join with me down the track. But remember, it's all about a tipping point in the spirit realm for my plans to materialise. The more of you who are with me right now will add impetus, rather than inertia, to what I want to do."*⁷

"There is righteousness and there is unrighteousness being carried out by the citizens of your nation. My people need to have my mind on these things. Their actions, their voice will do more than just a few people accessing the Courts of Heaven, because there is a tipping point in every nation where the populace in a particular mindset or a particular understanding gets to a certain point and the nation moves in that direction. It's a population dynamic that I have put in place, and this is why the silent majority needs to be silent no more. They need to speak, they need to know my heart, know my mind and speak wherever they are to people, and into the atmosphere, the things that ought to be."

When the numbers reach the tipping point, you will see changes in this nation. Yes, you can access the Courts of Heaven in this regard, but I am wanting to work through my citizens, my Aussie citizens, my children here, to see things done the way I set them up to be. And that is: My children bringing the light of righteousness into the world"

This is a very important function that you have, and it's been lost. My children have pulled out of society and hidden away. I want them to influence their local communities and their nations and their cities for me.

I have all the answers. I have full knowledge of absolutely everything. Spend time lingering with me, sitting in my presence, asking for me to download to you exactly what it is that you need to know and exactly what it is that you need to do. This is my plan and this is my purpose.”⁸

He told me that co-labouring with him in alignment was what was required to shift the spiritual balance. Here's what he said:

“I've said that the Spirit will move in this land, and hit it like a tsunami, and that is the case. But there are things that need to fall into place first, and I believe/understand that's what you are asking. How do we fit in with you? So this is my request.

Join in me in what I am doing. Attach yourself to me like a bondservant and commit yourself to seeing my will done in this nation. Align yourself with me so that my will, Father's will, is being done and not your own. Put aside your own ideas and your own thoughts and your own plans and your own purposes and your own heart's desires, and allow me to pour into you my heart's desires.

If you want to see this nation grow and develop, and reach its potential and to reach its destiny, if you want to see the Spirit released, then harmony must be in this place. Now, harmony, is harmony with me. This nation must come, the saints must come, my children must come to me and want to work with me – co-labour with me in this nation. This will create a tipping-point for me to start releasing what I want to release. And I do, I honestly do want to see my Spirit wiping away the dross from this nation and bringing vitality, and vim and vigour... So co-labour with me. Seek me, I am here to counsel with you 24/7. You only have to ask and have ears to hear and a heart to want to receive from me what I have to say.”⁹

NOTE: His instruction to align with him and his plans has been a constant directive from him in his messages to us since 2016.

Of course, all truth resides in the Trinity, so to confirm what I've been writing in this article, I decided to asked the King for his thoughts on the matter, with special reference to our nation, Australia. Read what he gave me here:

COMMENT: You may now understand why revivals fade out. People's hearts begin strongly towards 'God'¹⁰ which shifts the balance in their area and allows the Spirit to work in a big way. As time goes on, hearts turn to other things and to life issues, and alignment with Heaven ceases to be a priority. I'm not stating this as a fact, but it does explain why revivals come and go. It also explains why the move to the Manifestation of Sons and The Restoration of All Things requires more than just a group of people who "love Jesus".

10 – ‘God’: I use this term in inverted commas because ‘God’ is the generic term people use, while I don't any more. I have an intimate relationship with the members of the Trinity, so I refer to them by name, out of relationship. From my oneness with them, I also refer to them as The Trinity.
