

Work Within Boundaries

I've taught on boundaries on a number of occasions in the past,¹ however, it's not a topic that seems to produce results in people. I believe the reason for that is our society's indoctrination that we are individuals in charge of our lives and destinies, and that no one has the right to stop us. Unfortunately, this is a soulish set of attitudes that feed into our base nature and cause us to work outside of the Kingdom.

Because of this, we'll need a lot of spiritual training to learn to set boundaries and to respect other people's boundaries. We'll also need training to comply with Heaven's boundaries so we can be trusted to operate as kings.² The lack of respecting boundaries will be an area that will be hard to change in us, it will be as hard as eliminating pride and replacing it with humility.

As part of our King's reprogramming on the matter of boundaries, here's a recent message from him:

*“Stay within your boundaries, and resist the urge to manipulate or dominate other people. Your greatest gift is free will. Your ability to choose for yourself is a sacred right. You do not want others to choose for you. Give them the same respect and consideration.”*³
